Fifty-sixth session
Agenda item 166
Measures to eliminate international terrorism

Security Council
Fifty-seventh year

Letter dated 11 March 2002 from the Permanent Representative of Israel to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

Over this past weekend, the Palestinian campaign of terrorism against Israeli civilians has continued unabated.

On Saturday evening, 9 March, at approximately 8.30 p.m. (local time), a group of people were standing outside the Gerami Hotel in the Israeli city of Netanya following a party for a bridegroom when they came under fire from Palestinian terrorists. Two gunmen, one of them disguised as an Israeli police officer, opened fire on the crowd with automatic rifles and then stormed the lobby of the hotel, hurling grenades and firing indiscriminately. Two people — one of them a nine-month-old baby — were killed in the attack and approximately 50 others were wounded, many of them seriously.

Some two hours later, a Palestinian terrorist entered a popular outdoor café in the Rehavia neighbourhood of Jerusalem and detonated a powerful explosive charge. At the time of the attack, the café was teeming with patrons following the conclusion of the Jewish Sabbath. The force of the explosion ripped through the café, killing 11 people and wounding more than 50 others, 10 of them seriously.

Yesterday afternoon, a Palestinian terrorist posing as a worker approached the Israeli community of Netzarim and killed an Israeli soldier, Staff Sergeant Kobi Eichelboim, age 21, shooting him in the head at close range. The terrorist also wounded the community's head of security, Pinhas Seltzer, before being stopped by security officers.

Also yesterday, at approximately 11 p.m. (local time), in the coastal Israeli city of Ashdod, a Palestinian terrorist opened fire on a banquet hall while a Bar Mitzvah celebration was taking place. A 12-year-old boy was moderately-to-seriously wounded by gunshots to his arm and knee. A far greater tragedy was averted when the terrorist's rifle jammed and he was forced to flee on foot. He was later apprehended by police officers.

With the exception of yesterday's attack in Ashdod, the Al Aksa Martyrs Brigades, the terrorist arm of Palestinian Authority Chairman Yasser Arafat's Fatah faction, claimed responsibility for all the attacks described above. The terrorist organization Hamas also claimed responsibility for the Jerusalem attack.

These attacks come in addition to several attempted attacks that were thwarted by Israeli security forces or by alert civilians. Last week, a Palestinian terrorist attempted to perpetrate an attack on a Jerusalem café similar to the one that occurred on Saturday but was foiled by a waiter and a security guard who pushed the terrorist outside and contacted the police. Yesterday, security forces intercepted a booby-trapped car on its way to Jerusalem to carry out a car bombing. In a separate incident in northern Jerusalem, border policemen stopped a Palestinian — armed with a Kalashnikov assault rifle, several ammunition clips, two hand grenades, and a flak jacket — who intended to carry out a terrorist attack in the city.

These attacks and attempted attacks come in addition to scores of incidents that have occurred in the 17-month campaign of terrorism that has been detailed in my letters dated 5 March 2002 (A/56/857-S/2002/233), 4 March 2002 (A/56/854-S/2002/222), 27 February 2002 (A/56/843-S/2002/208), 20 February 2002 (A/56/828-S/2002/185), 19 February 2002 (A/56/824-S/2002/174), 11 February 2002 (A/56/819-S/2002/164), 8 February 2002 (A/56/814-S/2002/155), 28 January 2002 (A/56/798-S/2002/126), 22 January 2002 (A/56/788-S/2002/104), 18 January 2002 (A/56/781-S/2002/86), 16 January 2002 (A/56/774-S/2002/73), 11 January 2002 (A/56/771-S/2002/47), 4 January 2002 (A/56/766-S/2002/25), 13 December 2001 (A/56/706-S/2001/1198), 4 December 2001 (A/56/678-S/2001/1150), 30 November 2001 (A/56/670-S/2001/1141), 27 November 2001 (A/56/663-S/2001/1121), 12 November 2001 (A/56/617-S/2001/1071), 5 November 2001 (A/56/604-S/2001/1048), 24 October 2001 (A/56/506-S/2001/1011), 19 October 2001 (A/56/492-S/2001/990), 17 October 2001 (A/56/483-S/2001/975), 8 October 2001 (A/56/450-S/2001/948), 5 October 2001 (A/56/444-S/2001/943), 3 October 2001 (A/56/438-S/2001/938), 24 September 2001 (A/56/406-S/2001/907), 20 September 2001 (A/56/386-S/2001/892), 17 September 2001 (A/56/367-S/2001/875), 7 September 2001 (A/56/346-S/2001/858), 4 September 2001 (A/56/331-S/2001/840), 30 August 2001 (A/56/325-S/2001/834), 27 August 2001 (A/56/324-S/2001/825), 13 August 2001 (A/56/294-S/2001/787), 9 August 2001 (A/56/286-S/2001/780), 8 August 2001 (A/56/280-S/2001/775), 6 August 2001 (A/56/272-S/2001/768), 27 July 2001 (A/56/225-S/2001/743), 26 July 2001 (A/56/223-S/2001/737), 17 July 2001 (A/56/201-S/2001/706), 13 July 2001 (A/56/184-S/2001/696), 3 July 2001 (A/56/138-S/2001/662), 2 July 2001 (A/56/131-S/2001/656), 21 June 2001 (A/56/119-S/2001/619), 19 June 2001 (A/56/98-S/2001/611), 18 June 2001 (A/56/97-S/2001/604), 13 June 2001 (A/56/92-S/2001/585), 11 June 2001 (A/56/91-S/2001/580), 4 June 2001 (A/56/85-S/2001/555), 30 May 2001 (A/56/81-S/2001/540), 25 May 2001 (A/56/80-S/2001/524), 18 May 2001 (A/56/78-S/2001/506), 11 May 2001 (A/56/72-S/2001/473), 9 May 2001 (A/56/69-S/2001/459), 1 May 2001 (A/55/924-S/2001/435), 23 April 2001 (A/55/910-S/2001/396), 16 April 2001 (A/55/901-S/2001/364), 28 March 2001 (A/55/863-S/2001/291), 27 March 2001 (A/55/860-S/2001/280), 26 March 2001 (A/55/858-S/2001/278), 19 March 2001 (A/55/842-S/2001/244), 5 March 2001 (A/55/821-S/2001/193), 2 March 2001 (A/55/819-S/2001/187), 14 February 2001 (A/55/787-S/2001/137), 13 February 2001 (A/55/781-S/2001/132), 2 February 2001 (A/55/762-S/2001/103), 25 January 2001 (A/55/748-S/2001/81), 23 January 2001 (A/55/742-S/2001/71), 28 December 2000 (A/55/719-S/2000/1252), 22 November 2000 (A/55/641-S/2000/1114), 20 November 2000 (A/55/634-S/2000/1108) and 2 November 2000 (A/55/540-S/2000/1065).

Rather than fighting terrorism, as is his obligation, Chairman Arafat has permitted a vast terrorist infrastructure to flourish in the territories under his control and has given his support to extremist elements that celebrate the murder of civilians. Even as he purports to condemn terrorism, forces affiliated with Chairman Arafat's Fatah faction continue to proudly claim responsibility for attacks which deliberately targeted innocent Israeli civilians. For these reasons, Israel holds the Palestinian Authority and its Chairman directly responsible for these latest attacks.

The first step towards any political settlement in the region must begin with a complete and unconditional cessation of violence, as called for in both the Mitchell report and the Tenet understanding, both of which have been accepted by the Palestinian side. In facilitating this process, the international community must affirm that any deliberate targeting of civilians is a totally unacceptable practice that places its perpetrators outside the bounds of civilized behaviour. The international community must further demand that the Palestinian leadership take genuine action against the terrorist organizations that it harbours in its territory.

Until such time as the Palestinian leadership takes seriously its signed commitments to act against terrorist organizations that operate freely in its territory, Israel will be forced to take the steps necessary to ensure the security of its citizens. The Palestinian refusal to fulfil its obligations to fight terrorism means Israel's security precautions are the only thing standing between a Palestinian suicide bomber and a crowded Israeli restaurant or shopping centre.

No political process can advance while the deliberate targeting of civilians is perceived by one side as a legitimate tactic for the advancement of its political agenda. Making political concessions under the threat of further violence and terror will not advance our common objectives of achieving a ceasefire and ultimately a settlement of the conflict, but will only whet the appetite of extremists for further violence and further concessions. Only by declaring the absolute illegitimacy of heinous terrorist tactics can we pave the way for a return to a process of dialogue and negotiations.

I should be grateful if you would arrange to have the text of this letter circulated as a document of the General Assembly, under agenda item 166, and of the Security Council.

Fifty-sixth session
Agenda item 122
Programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001

Final appropriation for the biennium 2000-2001

Report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions

1. The Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions has considered the report of the Secretary-General on the final appropriation for the biennium 2000-2001 (A/56/866). During its consideration of the report, the Advisory Committee met with representatives of the Secretary-General, who provided additional information and clarifications.

2. The General Assembly, by its resolution 56/240 A of 24 December 2001, took note of the second performance report of the Secretary-General on the programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001 (A/56/674) and the related report of the Advisory Committee (A/56/694) and approved a combined revised appropriation and commitment authority of $2,561,578,000. As indicated in paragraph 1 of the report of the Secretary-General, "the Assembly also decided, in the light of the need for precision in determining the required final level of appropriations and assessments, that it would revert to consideration of the final appropriation at its resumed fifty-sixth session in March 2002".

3. As indicated in paragraph 5 of the report, pending a determination of the final level of appropriations and income, no assessment action was taken at the main part of the fifty-sixth session to reflect the changes in requirements vis-à-vis the revised appropriation and estimates of income approved by the Assembly in its resolutions 55/239 A to C of 23 December 2000. In its resolutions 55/239 A to C, the Assembly approved a revised appropriation of $2,533,125,400 and a revised estimate of income of $380,822,700.

4. The annex to the report shows a final level of expenditure of $2,561,186,900, or a decrease of $391,100 as compared with the revised appropriation and commitment authority approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 56/240 A, and a final income estimate for the biennium of $383,415,200, or an increase of $3,741,700 over the provisional estimate approved by the Assembly in its resolution 56/240 B.

02-28465 (E) 130302

5. The Committee received detailed information on the budget performance in respect of the financial period 2000-2001, which is contained in the annex to the present report. The Committee was informed that a rigorous exercise had been undertaken to evaluate the validity of the unliquidated obligations. As can be seen from that annex, unliquidated obligations of $74,936,000 in respect of 2000-2001 represent 2.9 per cent of expenditure, a significant decrease as compared with the previous two bienniums. The Committee welcomes this development; it points out that, as a consequence, significant savings should not be expected as the result of any future cancellations of obligations for 2000-2001. Amounts resulting from cancellations of any obligations would be confirmed after the audit relating to the biennium 2002-2003, which will be reported by the Board of Auditors and considered by the General Assembly in autumn 2004; Member States would therefore be credited in 2005.

6. The Advisory Committee recommends that the General Assembly approve the final appropriation resolution for the biennium 2000-2001 as set out in the annex to the report of the Secretary-General. In so doing, the General Assembly will have also approved the necessary transfers among sections.

Programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003

Comprehensive implementation of and follow-up to the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance

Programme budget implications of draft resolution A/C.3/56/L.84/Rev.1

Report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions

1. The Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions has considered the statement submitted by the Secretary-General (A/C.5/56/38), in accordance with rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, of the budget implications of draft resolution A/C.3/56/L.84/Rev.1.

2. Operative paragraphs 12,13 and 14 of draft resolution A/C.3/56/L.84/Rev.1 are quoted in paragraph 1 of the Secretary-General's statement.

3. As indicated in paragraph 2 of the statement, the requests contained in operative paragraphs 12,13 and 14 of draft resolution A/C.3/56/L.84/Rev.1 are associated with programme 19, Human rights, of the medium-term plan for the period 2002-2005 and to section 22, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003.

4. Activities by which the proposed requests would be implemented are contained in paragraph 3 of the Secretary-General's statement and provide for, inter alia, the following:

(a) Establishment of the Anti-Discrimination Unit, which would include three Professional posts (one P-5 and two P-3) and one General Service post;

(b) Convening of three meetings of five independent eminent experts (two meetings in 2002 and one meeting in 2003, all at Geneva);

02-28485 (E) 130302

(c) Convening of five regional expert meetings (two meetings in 2002, in Latin America and Africa, and three meetings in 2003, for Asia, Eastern Europe and States that are members of the Group of Western European and Other States).

5. The modification that would be required to the narrative of section 22 of the programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003 is indicated in paragraph 4 of the Secretary-General's statement. The Committee was informed, upon enquiry, that the modification provides the necessary degree of detail with regard to the reference to the outcome of the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance approved in paragraph 67 of annex I to General Assembly resolution 56/253.

6. The Committee requested and was provided with information on the provisional structure of the Anti-Discrimination Unit and on the breakdown of the cost of five regional meetings. (See the annexes to the present report.)

7. The Committee was informed that the status of voluntary contributions to the World Conference is as follows: contributions amount to $7,902,461 and expenditures to $7,621,840, leaving a balance of $280,621.

8. As shown in the table in paragraph 5 of the statement, total requirements would amount to $1,178,700, of which $1,074,800 would be required under section 22, Human rights, and $103,900 would be required under section 32, Staff assessment (to be offset by an equivalent amount under income section 1, Income from staff assessment) of the programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003.

9. The Advisory Committee recommends that the Fifth Committee inform the General Assembly that, should it adopt draft resolution A/C.3/56/L.84/Rev.1, expenditures would arise not exceeding $1,074,800 under section 22, Human rights, and $103,900 under section 32, Staff assessment (to be offset by an equivalent amount under income section 1, Income from staff assessment) of the programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003; additional appropriations would be considered by the Assembly in accordance with the procedures set out in resolutions 41/213 and 42/211 for the use and operation of the Contingency Fund. However, in view of the fact that the draft resolution is proposed for adoption in March 2002, the activities to be implemented immediately thereafter, it will be necessary to authorize commitment in the recommended amount at the current part of the resumed session. Such additional appropriation as may be required would then be considered at the main part of the fifty-seventh session of the General Assembly.

10. The Advisory Committee also recommends that, whenever possible, efforts should be made to supplement the work of the Anti-Discrimination Unit, and other activities relating to the follow-up to the Conference, with voluntary contributions.
